

THREE EDUCATIONAL POLICIES

1 , DIPLOMA POLICIES (POLICIES ON ACADEMIC DEGREE CONFERMENT)

- Acquire the ability to understand the regional social system, resources, issues, etc. from a high-level and interdisciplinary perspective.
- Acquire the ability to realize community design required for more sustainable and prosperous community, having faced rapid social changes and diversity, and further complicated regional problems from an interdisciplinary perspective.
- Acquire the ability to apply some appropriate analysis approach to various theme in community with deeper understanding.
- Acquire the ability to analyze practical knowledge among various entities in the community academically and reflect its perception into the community.

2 , CURRICULUM POLICIES (CURRICULUM TO ACHIEVE ACADEMIC/EDUCATIONAL TARGET) THE CURRICULUM OF PROGRAM PROVIDES;

- Assign courses to understand academic theory that is essential to design community to a high level and from an interdisciplinary perspective.
- Assign courses to question diverse practices in the community from an interdisciplinary perspective and reflect its knowledge into the community.
- Assign courses about metrology of academic research and doctrine in applied research field targeted community.
- Assign advanced seminar and course work to acquire the realistic problem-solving method and theory through the study of practical knowledge, having integrated abilities acquired from specialized curriculum in a high level, and faced the theme in diverse community.

3 , ADMISSION POLICIES

- Person who has basic academic skills of policy science, urban development, lifestyle, etc. necessary for Community Design Studies.
- Person who has motivation in challenging to resolve new problems by looking at the community and learning from practice.
- Person who has a strong interest and motivation in contribution to community through Community Design Studies.